

I do not think that it is in the interest of any Australian to continue to follow America into illegal wars. I want to see American bases removed from Australia. Too many Australians have died for no benefit to Australia or the countries we invade, only to keep America in control and with power over whatever they wish to take from the country we invade. Australians are tired of pointless wars, and saddened by the destruction we cause in any country that does not want to bow down to America.