

I am a concerned citizen who does not want to see Australia dragged into a possible war with China.

I saw the terrible cost of the Vietnam war on young Australian soldiers who were sent to fight there. Australia's economy is struggling now with the effects of corona virus, so we don't need the economic impact of a possible war. Australia needs peace not war.