

Dennis Murphy

The Morrison Government criticises China for building a military base in the South China Sea but is silent about US bases all over the world (in more than 90 countries).

In the Chagos Islands, The US and UK governments evicted the indigenous population to build a massive military base. The indigenous population are still to this day not allowed back. The Morrison Government is silent on the issue.

This is utter hypocrisy and makes a mockery of our foreign policy.