

Frank Simpson

Concern about the impact of population growth by immigration on quality of life and the environment.

Also concerned about relations with China. Australia has no territorial dispute with China and so has no need to follow the USA into a war with China. Need to leave ANZUS and the USA military alliance. Defence spending needs to be diverted to preparing for and action on climate change impacts.