I want Australia to be an independent nation with a properly representative democratic system of government. There should be a treaty with, and constitutional recognition of prior occupation. The national flag should be the First Nations' black, gold, and red. The national anthem should be 'I am Australian' by The Seekers.

Australia needs to grow up and stop listening to shysters (billionaires and corporations), stop visiting mum (UK) all the time, stop trying to impress the cousin (US) and stop stirring-up the Asian kid down the road.
