

Norma Forrest

Surely it is only reasonable that Australia needs our own foreign policy based on Australia's interests. A Us-Australia alliance leads to missions that we don't need. WE need an independent foreign policy... a peaceful one. Over many years the US has been too keen to go to war unnecessarily., which makes it the most dangerous country ever.