

Linda du Boulay

European white caucasian people have taken control and populated a major percentage of the world. This is perceived as threatening to other countries who have maintained their own space. For Australia to join America and the rest of their allies to interfere, coerce or bribe through trade offs, other nations to follow the American agenda is unfair and increases tensions and the likelihood of wars.