

Ruth Marcia Watson

Most of us are so fortunate in Australia but we should not be complacent. We are able to speak out about the governments use of our money. Let's say no to increasing armaments. In particular let's say 'stop selling arms to other countries'.